

1340 Queen St NE
Washington, District of Columbia, 20002

All programs offered online. Please schedule programs 2 weeks in advance. Contact Rebecca Claster at becky@clastereducation.com or (202) 368-1888.

Program	Cost	Attendees	Other
Your Girl Scout Experience and the College Search: Seniors Workshop  In this virtual workshop for Seniors and their parents, girls will learn how their Girl Scout experience can make them stronger candidates for college and inform their college search. We discuss what colleges are looking for and how to develop your qualifications, as well as how to identify schools that will be a great fit. Participants will also receive a timeline for preparation and applications, including standardized testing and financial aid.	$25/girl	12 Min 100 Max	All programs can be used to work toward the College Knowledge badge. Workshops are recorded to allow a make-up opportunity for Girl Scouts who cannot attend.
Your Girl Scout Experience and the College Search: Ambassadors Workshop  In this virtual workshop for 11th grade Ambassadors, you'll learn how the Girl Scout experience can inform your college search and strengthen your college applications. We'll discuss what colleges are looking for and how to highlight your qualifications, as well as how to identify schools that will be a great fit. Participants will also receive a timeline of the application process, guidance on standardized testing, and an overview of the financial aid system.	$25/girl	12 Min 100 Max
College Application Strategies for Girl Scouts  This webinar will walk students through the sections of the Common Application and give tips for making their applications as strong as possible, with emphasis on the Girl Scout experience and focus on activities section.	$25/girl	12 Min 100 Max
College Essay Strategies for Girl Scouts  This webinar includes a discussion of what admissions officials are looking for in application essays, advice for choosing topics, writing tips, and ways girls can use application essays to highlight their Girl Scout experience.	$25/girl	12 Min 100 Max	