

State park programs are open to the public and not guaranteed to be Girl Scouts only.

Program	Cost	Attendees	Other
Interpreters and Visitor Centers d b j c s a Troop Leaders can take advantage of State Park Interpreters and Visitor Centers for their next troop outing. These centers host nature exhibits and have access to nearby trails. For those seeking a more engaging educational experience, search online or call ahead to learn more about interpretive programs on Michigan's natural resources.	No Cost	No min or max	Available days and times vary between centers. Learn more here.
Summer Explorer Guides d b j c s a From Memorial Day to Labor Day select Michigan state parks feature Explorer Guides, or seasonal summer interpreters. Troop leaders may connect with their local state park to learn more about upcoming public programs. Advance notice is strongly recommended for groups so interpreters may plan accordingly.	No Cost	No min or max	Available days and times vary between centers. Learn more here.
Iron Belle Trail Challenge d b j c s a The Iron Belle Challenge began in 2015 as a Department of Natural Resources-sponsored scouting event to commemorate the establishment of the Michigan Iron Belle Trail, stretching over 1,200 miles between Belle Isle in Detroit and Ironwood in the western Upper Peninsula. It began as a hiking event, but has grown to include participants who bike, kayak or canoe. Each year the DNR sponsors this trail event in conjunction with National Trails Day and encourages Girl Scouts to get out and enjoy one of Michigan's many trail opportunities. Girl Scouts who participate receive a commemorative patch. An additional rocker patch can be earned by doing a stewardship activity that supports trails or park systems during September.	No Cost	No min or max	Available days and times vary between centers. Learn more here.
Girl Scout Conservation Stewardship Award b j c s a From Memorial Day to Labor Day select Michigan state parks feature Explorer Guides, or seasonal summer interpreters. Troop leaders may connect with their local state park to learn more about upcoming public programs. Advance notice is strongly recommended for groups so interpreters may plan accordingly.	No Cost	No min or max	Available days and times vary between centers. Learn more here.
Arrows Away b j c s a Have you ever wanted to give archery a shot? Here's your chance. Join these introductory archery programs to learn basic archery safety, terminology and lots of shooting time. All equipment provided and most sites have equipment for most ages and abilities. Archery is a high risk activity. Per the Safety Activity Checkpoints, troop leaders must submit an activity approval form before attending an Arrows Away program	No Cost	No min or max	Available days and times vary between centers. Learn more here.