If you need more detailed explanations, review available resources with your leader or adult volunteer. The Adult Guide to Earning the Silver Award goes into more detail; the Volunteer Toolkit has Silver Award meeting plans; the Girl Scout Activity Zone has helpful videos and self-guided activities to help you explore the key requirements of the Silver Award; the Silver Award webpage and gsLearn have on-demand Silver Award training.

Excited to earn your Silver Award? Check these off first.

- ☐ You're a registered Girl Scout Cadette (in grades 6th–8th).
- ☐ You've earned a Cadette Journey, including the Journey's Take Action project.
- ☐ You will be able to finish your project and submit paperwork by September 30th after 8th grade is completed.
- ☐ You're excited to plan a Take Action project with the required elements by: practicing leadership, addressing a real root cause of a community issue you care about, and creating a plan to make your project sustainable.

What do Silver Award Girl Scouts say?

“Do what you love while helping others!”

“Definitely do it. We learned a lot!”

“Be realistic.”

“We enjoyed giving back to our community!”

“Plan, and plan more.”

“Time management is the hardest.”

“Just start! Don't put it off because you're looking for the perfect project.”

“Ask for help!”

Key Elements of the Silver Award Project

The Silver Award Take Action project may be different than other projects you've done as a Girl Scout.

If you earned a Bronze Award, some of the steps will be familiar. If you didn't earn a Bronze Award—that's OK! Any Girl Scout Cadette can rock a Silver Award Take Action project.

Take Action vs. Community Service

Before you begin, it's helpful to understand the difference between a Take Action project and a Community Service project. Here's the difference:

Take Action	Community Service
A long-term project with sustainable and ongoing influence that addresses an issue's root cause	A short-term effort that helps something or someone fulfill an immediate need
Done WITH the community	Done FOR the community
Creating a unique initiative to address an issue's root cause	Joining an existing effort to solve an issue
Creating and leading your own team of volunteers	Joining an existing team , usually as a volunteer
Setting the goals and leading a team to achieve them	Working toward a goal that's set by others

Often, a community service project idea can be developed into a Take Action project. For example, you may want to collect items for a crowded pet shelter. That's a service project, of course. But if you partner with the shelter to understand the root causes of overcrowded shelters and come up with a solution, like workshops to educate others about spaying and neutering pets, that's a Take Action project.

Project Requirements

Take Action projects have up to five elements: the Girl Scout Gold Award requires all five; the Girl Scout Silver Award requires three; and the Girl Scout Bronze Award requires two.

	Leadership	Root Cause	Sustainable	Measurable	National and/or Global Link
Bronze Juniors	Required element	Required element	Introduction of new concept
Silver Cadettes	Required element	Required element	Required element	Introduction of new concept	Introduction of new concept
Gold Seniors/Ambassadors	Required element	Required element	Required element	Required element	Required element

Required element Introduction of new concept

To earn the Silver Award, you need to:

- Show leadership.
- Research and address a root cause of an issue in your community.
- Create a plan to make the project sustainable.
- Optional: “Try” to make your project measurable.
- Optional: “Try” to make a national and/or global link.

These are the key elements. If they are new to you—no worries! We’ll identify how to fulfill each of these requirements in this workbook. You’ll be a Silver Award Take Action project expert in no time.

Prerequisites

Before getting started, make sure you have completed a Cadette Journey, including the Journey's Take Action project.

In your Silver Award Project Proposal, you will be asked to provide the name of the Cadette Journey completed and the completion date.

In addition, you will be asked to reflect on these questions:

- What did you do?
- What did you learn?
- What will you do better, or differently, next time?

This reflection will help you have a successful Silver Award project.

Step 1: Identify Issues

How to start? Begin with your passions! What makes you excited? What do you love to do? What have you always longed to know more about?

Then, look to your community. What are the challenges? Who could use some help? Is there a way to bring your passions to the community to make the world a better place?

There are no wrong answers—no pressure. In this step, you're simply exploring, jotting down what comes to mind.

Check out the sample Silver Award Take Action project in the template pages to follow all the examples provided throughout this workbook.

Use the chart on the next page to help you find the issues that interest you.

Tip: Once you begin this step, start tracking your time so you don't get stuck trying to recreate it at the end. Each Cadette should spend approximately 50 hours working toward the Silver Award. Track your time using the Time Log found in the template section, a spreadsheet, or a piece of paper—just don't lose it.

What issues are you passionate about?

Why are these issues important to you?

How do the issues affect your community?

Environment

Trees are essential for so many animals. I see a lot of trees being cut down to make room for new buildings.

There is less space for the birds and their nests.

Education

I want to be a teacher and I enjoy working with kids.

All children should be able to learn and have fun while doing it. More tools are needed to assist teachers in keeping learning fun.

Match your talents and skills with the issues you identified and the people you want to help using the Take Action Brainstorming Decision Bracket, which can be found in the template pages.

Step 2: Build Your Team

To meet the Silver Award Leadership requirement, you'll need to build a team. You've got options:

- Small team model: Work with a team of up to three other Cadettes. Your team can be made up of Girl Scouts from the same troop, other troops, or individually registered Girl Scouts. Each Girl Scout must play an active role in choosing, planning, developing, and completing the team's project, and must have their own role and responsibilities in the project.
- Solo model: You can create and implement a project on your own. Recruiting and engaging your peers and/or adult volunteers from your network and around your community will be necessary to complete specific tasks.

Teamwork makes the dream work.

Since each Cadette will spend approximately 50 hours on this project, focus on an issue you are really interested in. Don't just pick an issue your friend is doing because you want to work with them.

- Respect your teammates and their different points of view.
- Decide on team rules—use the Girl Scout Law as your guide.
- Contribute your share.
- Have a conflict? Resolve it quickly by talking things out.

No matter which option you choose:

- Plan to partner with community members to learn about your issue, discover the root cause(s), make a plan, and take action. Community members might be teachers or school administrators, neighbors, business owners, religious group leaders, or staff at a local community center working on the issue you are interested in. They should be experts in the issue you're working on.
- Show active leadership by involving others in your efforts and directing them to help you meet the goals of your project. Keep track of who helps you and how so you can thank them upon completion and list them in your Silver Award Final Report.
- You should have the support of at least one registered, background-checked adult Girl Scout volunteer who is responsible for safety and Silver Award procedures.
- Try it: Having a project advisor is not required but can be very helpful. Lots of people are happy to play a part in helping a Girl Scout make the world a better place.
- The Silver Award Final Report will ask you to identify and reflect on your individual leadership role, responsibilities, and experience.

A project advisor is an adult who is an expert that has some level of knowledge, skills, or access to resources that can help with your project.

While parents/legal guardians and troop leaders can be project advisors, try to expand outside your familiar circles and grow your network!

If you've chosen a group for your team, hold your first meeting.

Explore how you can collaborate. Play a game or two to get the ball rolling—you might try “spider web!” First, form a circle. Then, toss a ball of yarn or string to each other. The person receiving the yarn tells the group a characteristic about themselves before tossing the yarn to the next person. The yarn should be held tightly and above the ground at all times. Use this activity to discuss how the members all depend on each other. If a single person pulls the yarn, it affects everyone in the group; if one person's yarn is cut, the whole web is broken. Have fun!

For more team-building activities, ask your adult volunteer, advisor, or another trusted adult to check out the Volunteer Toolkit Silver Award Meeting Plans.

Step 3: Explore Your Community

1. Draw a community map to keep track of what you see and your ideas for change.

As you explore, remember that a community can be a physical place on a map or a group of people.

2. List the names and contact info of those you meet in your community who might be able to help you with your project.

Community experts are important because they can offer their knowledge or advise you on how to take action on the issue(s) you are thinking about addressing through your project.

Name and Contact Info	Organization	How might they help?
Teacher, neighbor	Neighborhood preschool	Ideas on how to engage preschool students in learning
Carpenter, local store owner	Local hardware store	Ideas for the materials to use for the hands-on shoe-tying tool

3. Learn what others know of your issue.

Chat with the people you know to learn about your issue in the community. It's another way of finding a project idea that might interest you.

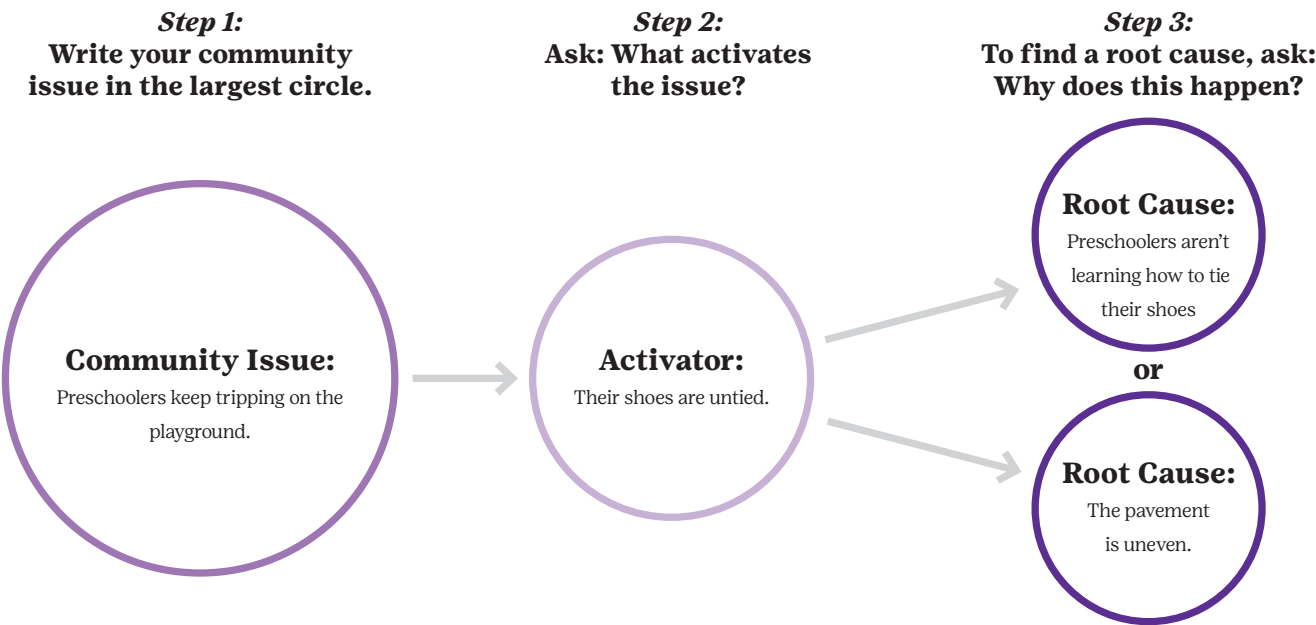

Who I Talked to	Issue(s) They Suggested	What Causes the Issue	What Worked in the Past	What Didn't Work
Teachers	Students tripping	Shoelaces untied	Learning the skills at home	School nurse teaching students
School nurse	Students needing more support to learn how to properly tie their shoes	Students not getting enough practice	Presentation on how to tie shoes	Students forgot how to tie shoes after the presentation because there was no practice involved
Parents	No time to teach shoe tying	Busy schedules	Shoes without laces	Can't always wear shoes without laces

4. Research root causes by asking what causes an issue and why, then ask why this happens again.

Understanding the root causes of your issue is an important part of a Take Action project. By looking at the root causes of an issue, you figure out why the issue is happening in the first place and then you can create a solution to stop it from happening again.

Uncovering root causes may seem hard but it can be surprisingly easy. Brainstorm with your team, use colorful sticky notes to track your ideas, or create your own mind map diagram like the one shown here. Keep asking “Why?” and you may find that there is more than one root cause!

Use the blank mind mapping diagram in the template pages to find the root cause of your project's issue.

Step 4: Choose Your Silver Award Project

You've thought about your interests and passions. You've explored your community. You've talked to others, and you've researched to understand root causes of one or more issues. The moment you've been waiting for has arrived: it's time to choose a project!

Make it official by writing it down:

The issue my project will address is...

I care about education and I like working with children. I learned that lots of preschoolers are tripping on the school playground because they are not properly tying their shoes. The school nurse has seen an increase of injuries and is concerned someone will hurt themselves badly.

It matters because...

Injuries at school take away from children's fun and learning time. It's important that all children are safe and able to play. Mastering a task like shoe tying will help preschoolers be more independent and confident.

My target audience (who is going to benefit) is...

Preschoolers and school staff.

A root cause of my issue is...

Preschoolers are not learning how to tie their shoes. Maybe they are being taught, but they aren't remembering it. It is clear they need more practice in learning to tie their shoes.

My team's project idea plans to address the root cause by...

Developing a workshop to teach preschoolers to tie their shoes, with a hands-on tool to help them practice. The hands-on tool will stay at the school so the students can practice whenever they want.

Still not sure about your project? Try these to help you make a decision:

Review the info you've collected. Check out your issues chart, your community map, and the ideas you gathered from talking to others. If you're working with a team, sort the information you've gathered together and rank your ideas.

What matters to you most? Or, where could you or your team make the most positive change? Make a list of pros and cons you are considering. Use the Pros and Cons Chart in the template pages.

Feeling overwhelmed? Some issues are complicated and have a lot of pieces. It might help to narrow your focus. Can you break the issue down and take action on one part? Contact GSMISTS if you need help at customercare@gsmists.org.

Step 5: Make a Plan and Submit Your Silver Award Project Proposal

By now, you have chosen a Silver Award Take Action project and are ready to make a plan to get it done.

Planning ahead helps your Silver Award Take Action project go smoothly. Answer the questions below, then review the Silver Award checklist in the template pages at the end of this workbook to decide if your plan is complete or if more planning is needed.

Your plan is just that: a plan. If it changes over time, that's OK!

Question	Example	Your Answer
How will your unique talents and leadership skills be used in this project?	Gloria loves to build things, so she will lead the details of the hands-on tool. Ava likes research, so she will lead the gathering of information on fine motor and developmental skills for preschoolers for the workshop materials. Zuri prefers organizing and public speaking, so she will lead the scheduling and operational details for the actual workshop events.

Question	Example	Your Answer
What community experts will you work with?	Gloria will meet with a teacher and the owner of the local hardware store. Ava will meet with preschooler parents and teachers. Zuri will meet with the preschool administrators.
How will you create a plan to make your project sustainable?* Three possibilities are: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Create a permanent solution that can be used after the project is complete. 2. Educate and inspire others in the community or within Girl Scouts to be part of the change. 3. Advocate to change a rule, regulation, or law and encourage others to join. 	The team chooses Option 2: They will present workshops to students at the preschool and provide the workshop outline and permanent tool to the school who will continue to teach shoe tying.
Proposed Start Date	Fall of 7th Grade
Proposed End Date	Fall of 8th Grade
Is the time frame realistic? (Y/N)

* Your project is sustainable if the impact lasts, even after the project is over. Putting a plan into place to sustain your project is required; however, how the project is actually sustained is often outside Girl Scouts' influence or control. See The Adult Guide for Earning the Silver Award for specific examples.

Silver Award projects sometimes require money or nonmonetary donations of goods. If you think your project will require this, then please estimate supplies/donations needed and potential costs.

Example Budget Worksheet:

Supplies Needed	Estimate How Much They Will Cost
Pressed wood	$25
Yarn	$10
Nails	$8
Copies of workshop outline	$5

Estimated Budget Worksheet:

Supplies Needed	Estimate How Much They Will Cost

Take Action projects often focus on education and advocacy. These generally don't cost very much. If your Silver Award Take Action project has a budget that seems unrealistic, re-evaluate. Is the project truly a Take Action project?

For the Silver Award Final Report, use the Budget Worksheet in the template pages to list the items you received (including troop funds, money earned, donations, etc.), the cost of supplies purchased, and to identify who and where they are from.

GSMISTS Money Earning and Fund Raising Guidelines

Money earning activities are those Girl Scouts implement in order to supplement monies raised through the Girl Scout Product Programs - the Girl Scout Cookie Program and Fall Product Program. Other money earning activities are arranged by troops and service units and can include raking leaves, shoveling snow, walking pets, service-a-thons, etc. The funds earned through money earning are to be used for Girl Scout mission-based activities and must be retained by the troop or service unit, not by individuals. These funds must be accounted for through the required annual financial reporting.

Fund raising involves adults asking businesses, organizations, or individuals for money or in-kind contributions to support troop activities. Girl Scouts are not allowed to fund raise for their Girl Scout Silver Award.

Review GSMISTS MONEY EARNING AND FUND RAISING GUIDELINES prior to starting any money earning projects.

Try it!

Making your project measurable and making a national and/or global link is optional. Why take these steps? They will make your project stronger and help you prepare for the Girl Scout Gold Award.

Can you make your project measurable?

As you work on your project, try to set one goal that will help you measure your project's success. Think about what you can count to show the impact you've made on your community issue.

Possibilities include:

- the number of people the project helped.
- the number of people who got involved.
- a number that shows the change in a community's need (survey before and after).

Write down your goal in your Silver Award Project Proposal.

Can you make a national and/or global link?

Your project has a national and/or global link when you can identify how other people and places address your issue.

You can:

- Investigate how people in other communities or other parts of the world address your issue.
- Ask: What kinds of programs do they have in place? How can you learn from these? Can you incorporate what you learn about other communities into your project?

Share what you learn in your Silver Award Project Proposal.

Complete Your Silver Award Project Proposal.

When you're ready, make it official:

Paste your answers into the Silver Award Project Proposal and submit to your Troop Leader for review and approval—they'll make sure you are on the right track!

Tip: The Silver Award Project Proposal must be submitted and approved BEFORE continuing work on your project. If you are working in a group, fill it out together! Your Troop Leader is the one who approves the Silver Award Project Proposal.

GSMISTS Silver Award Project Proposal Review and Approval Process

Silver Award Project Proposals are approved by the Troop Leader using information provided in the Adult Guide for Earning the Silver Award.

When reviewing a Silver Award Project Proposal keep in mind the following...

- Girl Scouts must be in 6th-8th grade to earn the Silver Award.
- Girl Scouts must complete a Cadette Journey, including the Journey's Take Action project prior to starting their Silver Award.
- Girl Scouts can work on their Silver Award on their own or on a team of up to three other Cadettes.
- If working on a team, each Girl Scout must put in approximately 50 hours of work into their Silver Award. If a team of four Cadettes are working together towards their Silver Award the project should have approximately 200 hours of work.
- When working on the Silver Award, Cadettes must show leadership, research and address a root cause of an issue in the community, and create a plan to make the project sustainable.
- Silver Awards can address concerns in the Girl Scout community. Approval must be received by GSMISTS prior to the Silver Award Project Proposal being approved by the Troop Leader.
- A Silver Award cannot be simply volunteering time for another organization in an already existing project.
- A Silver Award cannot be a fund raiser for another organization, project, or individual.
- A Silver Award cannot be worked on by multiple teams. Only one team (1-4 Girl Scouts) may collaborate on each Silver Award project.
- Cadettes should use the following resources included in this guide as they plan for and work on their Silver Award:
 - Take Action Project Decision Bracket
 - Mind Mapping Diagram
 - Pros/Cons Diagram
 - Budget Worksheet
 - To-Do List
 - Time Log

Questions? Contact customercare@gsmists.org.

Step 6: Put Your Plan in Motion

Ready to take action? It's time to put your plan in motion.

Make a list of things you need to do as shown in the chart below. If you're working in a team, decide what tasks each member will do. Then, decide when each item on the list needs to be completed.

Silver Award Take Action Project: To-Do List

Example	Task	How? Supplies needed?	Date task needs to be completed
Gloria	Develop the hands-on tool.	Discuss ideas with the carpenter and preschool teacher.	March 7
	Get supplies for the hands-on tool.	Donation from the hardware store: pressed wood, nails, and yarn.	April 8
Ava	Learn about fine motor skills and developmental stages of preschoolers.	Talk with a preschool teacher or other professional who works with preschoolers.	March 1
	Find fun ways to teach preschoolers to tie their shoes.	Review and sign the online Internet Safety Pledge with my troop leader, then research online.	March 21
Zuri	Schedule shoe-tying workshops.	Discuss possible dates with preschool administrators, then check with the team for their availability.	March 4
	Promote the workshops to preschooler families.	Create flyers advertising the workshops.	April 2
Ava and Gloria; Zuri review/edit	Create a step-by-step guide for using the tool to leave with the school.	Create on a computer and print out several copies.	May 10
Ava, Gloria, Zuri	Host the workshop.	Bring the tool and guide.	May 20

You and each of your team members must keep track of your own time spent on the project. See the start of Gloria's Time Log in the example below:

Date	Task	Time Spent	Running Total
3/7	Meet with the carpenter.	1 hour	1 hour
4/8	Get supplies.	1 hour	2 hours
4/20	Build sample hands-on tool.	4 hours	6 hours
5/1	Practice how to instruct.	2 hours	8 hours
5/10	Test with the preschool teacher.	2 hours	10 hours
6/1	Build more hands-on tools to leave with the school after the workshop.	8 hours	18 hours

You've seen Gloria's example above. Use the blank To-Do List and blank Time Log in the template pages to track your own work.

As you work on your project, take photos or videos to document the work you do. You can use these in Step 7: Spread the Word and share them in your Silver Award Final Report.

Be sure to wear your Girl Scout uniform, if you have one, when taking action in your community; people may be more eager to help you when they know that you are a Girl Scout!

Step 7: Spread the Word and Submit Your Silver Award Final Report

Spread the word by sharing the story of your project.

Why? Because when you share your project, you inspire others—and you bring attention to the important issue you were addressing. Telling your story is one of the best ways to celebrate all that you have accomplished!

There are lots of possibilities. You can give a presentation to another Girl Scout troop, your local Girl Scout community, or to students at school. Create a visual display for a local library or community center. Submit an article to the local news or your school website. How will you spread the word?

Complete Your Silver Award Final Report!

Congratulations! You've completed your Silver Award Take Action project. Get started on your Silver Award Final Report by reflecting on your experience.

- ☐ Describe in detail what you did for your leadership role.
- ☐ In completing this project, what did you discover about yourself?
- ☐ What skills did you gain, and how will these skills help you in the future?
- ☐ What part of your project would you change if you could start over, and why?

Each project team will submit a Silver Award Final Report about your project to your leader and council.

The Silver Award Final Report will contain individual sections for you to share your role and reflect. Once your Silver Award Final Report is approved by your Troop Leader, it's official: You're a Silver Award Girl Scout!

Keep a copy of your Silver Award Final Report for your own records and once the award is approved, submit a copy to GSMISTS before September 30th after completing 8th grade.

What if you didn't meet all of your goals?

The Silver Award is a leadership award. The most important outcomes are the ones you gain for yourself: improved confidence, better organization, stronger teamwork, and more. It's less about the perfect final product and more about what you discover along the way!

SAMPLE: Silver Award Take Action Project Shoe-Tying Success

Ava, Zuri, and Gloria were excited to earn their Girl Scout Silver Award. They agreed to be extra observant at school and in their neighborhood to discover potential issues that could be the focus of their Take Action project.

They came together as a team to share ideas, and they chose several ideas to explore. Their leader helped them connect with community members who could help them learn more. One of their observations was that lots of younger students don't tie their shoes. They researched to find the root cause: the students were not learning how to tie their shoes because they needed more hands-on practice.

They showed leadership by partnering with a preschool, and by each individual Girl Scout handling different aspects of the project. Ava took the lead on research, Zuri scheduled calls with experts to learn more, and Gloria worked with a small team of volunteers to create a hands-on tool to help students practice tying their shoes. Together, they developed workshops that they led at the preschool to put their program into action. Ava doesn't feel comfortable speaking publicly, so she helped set up and took attendance while Zuri and Gloria presented to students and teachers.

They felt proud when the preschoolers gained the skill and confidence to tie their shoes. And they made their project sustainable by teaching preschoolers to tie their shoes, and by sharing their workshop outline and hands-on tool with the preschool, which will continue to encourage the students to practice. They made a lasting impact!

Their troop leader explained the concepts of measurable and national and/or global link. They knew these weren't required for the Silver Award, but they made a goal to teach at least 50 students to tie their shoes. They decided to keep track of attendance at their presentations, just to practice for the Gold Award. They also discussed how their project links to a national and/or global issue because the increased demands on parents' time leads to a higher demand for more hands-on life skills programs at school.

Mind Mapping Diagram

Step 1:
Write your community issue.

(Place the answer in the inner circle.)

Step 2:
Ask: “What activates
the issue?”
Then, explore further.

(Place answers in circles just outside the community issue.)

Step 3:
To find the root cause,
ask: “Why does this happen?”

(Place answers in outer circles.)

Try it!

Write your community issue in the center circle. Ask yourself: What activates the issue? Write your answers in the circles closest to the center circle (add more if you need to). Then, explore further. Ask: “Why does this happen?” Place these answers in the smaller outer circles, like in our example on page 13. Add as many of these circles as you like. These are your root causes. Select one or two root causes and you have the foundation of a strong Silver Award Take Action project!
